

PUBLIC MEETING

Our Future in Progress

You are invited to Breakfast with the Artist

Help Brainstorm Preliminary Concepts for Old Town District Public Art

The Scottsdale Public Art Program is seeking community feedback on the preliminary design for public artwork for the Old Town District. The art will be incorporated into a new parking structure being built by the City at 2nd Street and Brown Avenue.

Join Artist Elizabeth Conner for breakfast for her thoughtful sculpture and civic art including the design for such parks as Garrison Creek Park, Fortson Square and Waterway 15 for the City's of Kent and Seattle, Washington. Ms. Conner is also designing public artworks for the cities of Charlotte, North Carolina and San Jose, California.

Join us for breakfast with the artist on May 11. Elizabeth Conner will give a presentation about the preliminary art concepts followed by a group discussion of the ideas.

Breakfast with the Artist

Tuesday, May 11, 2004
8:30 a.m.

City of Scottsdale
Community Design Studio
7506 E. Indian School Road

(bagels, cream cheese and coffee) on Tuesday, May 11 at 8:30 a.m. talk about preliminary concepts and ideas. Your ideas can help shape and inspire the final product.

Artist Elizabeth Conner began her work by interviewing area merchants and Scottsdale residents. The goal of the art work is to be a reflection of Old Town Scottsdale and is based on the theme "Hidden Histories". The objective of the art is to enhance the pedestrian experience while entering into Old Town.

The primary location for the art is the southwest corner of Brown and First Street. Elements will also occur on Second Street, to conceptually link with that of the Brown and First Street niche.

Elizabeth Conner earned a bachelor of fine arts degree from the Cornish Institute. She is known

The artwork for the Oldtown district was commissioned through the Scottsdale Public Art Program on behalf of the City of Scottsdale, through its one percent for art ordinance. For more information visit www.scottsdalepublicart.org.